

SOUTHERN & EASTERN CAPE ANNUAL AWARDS

MANAGEMENT

Andrew Jamieson

Scratch Golf, Knysna.

1. What is your current job title?

Head Golf Professional.

2. How long have you been in your current position?

3 years.

3. What have been the key deliverables of your position the past 12 months?

The key deliverables in my position over the past 12 months has been to see huge growth in our business in one of the most trying times.

Being able to implement and manage new ways of doing business has been a key point to our success as a store.

Having a great team around me, who offers sound advice and support has also been an awesome blessing.

4. How do you see the implementation of Safeguarding on your position and the industry?

The implementation of the safeguarding has definitely had a huge impact on how I handle day to day interactions with people and especially ladies.

Being more aware of boundaries has been vital to me and it has definitely had a positive impact on my dealings with people.

5. Please give us a brief outline of the path you took to lead you to your current position?

I started working at Scratch Golf, straight after going to university. I needed to do a internship and Peter kindly offered me the opportunity to do it at Scratch Golf.

I have been working and learning from Peter ever since and my growth in Scratch Golf has been tremendous. I started out not knowing much about the PGA and a few short years later - here I am being nominated for an award.

6. Why do you feel that you would be a good candidate to win this award?

After dealing with loads of shortcomings in terms of how I dealt with certain situations and with people. Having been taught how to handle these situations in a better and more effective manner would be good validation.

Receiving this award would be good validation that I am on the right track.

7. How do you promote a career in golf and the PGA to people who aspire to a career within the industry?

A career in golf is definitely one that people should consider as it provides the perfect balance in life. Hard work gets your places, and it also leads to an awesome life.

Would you like the PGA to share your profile via our social media platforms? Yes

Instagram - @drewbana91