HIGH PERFORMANCE COACH

Douglas Wood

I had the privilege of working for Doug early on in my career and I can confidently say that my brief time spent under his supervision has played a massive part in who I am today, as a person and as a professional.

The passion Doug has for golf and for teaching flows over in buckets. You only have to watch him for one day to see how he immerses himself into every lesson, every encounter with a player, every moment on the job. Doug is deeply engaged in his work and is always learning and growing, but the most amazing part is that he is never, for one second, doing it for himself. He selflessly pursues growth as a coach and as a mentor for others, not himself. He is always willing to share knowledge and experience, and never expecting anything in return.

To this day, even after many years, I am still touched by my time spent with him at his academy. I admire his selflessness, his passion, his kindness, and his consideration for all, and always think of him as a role-model within this industry. I aspire to walk with such love, kindness and passion on my path within this industry.

He is not only one of the most experienced and successful professional coaches in the industry, he is also one of the most incredible humans. His ability to relate with kindness, presence and compassion to players coupled with his exceptional skill and knowledge is what makes him so successful in the industry.
