Hans Jonck

myhomeclub

I am delighted to nominate Hans Jonck for the PGA Management award in recognition of his exceptional contributions within our Industry related to Club Management. Hans is the Managing Director of MyHomeClub, which provides supporting & advisory services and solutions to golf clubs. Throughout his career, Hans has consistently exhibited a rare blend of talent, dedication, and innovation that sets him apart as a true leader in his field. Not only has Hans achieved significant milestones and breakthroughs in the specialist areas, but he has also demonstrated exemplary leadership qualities that have inspired and empowered others within the industry. His visionary approach to problem-solving and his ability to think outside the box have led to groundbreaking advancements that have reshaped the landscape of golf club's operating structures. Moreover, Hans has not limited his impact to professional endeavours alone. His unwavering commitment to giving back to the community through lecturing, webinars and presenting, has made a tangible difference in the lives of many. His benevolent efforts and dedication to social responsibility serve as a shining example to us all.

Beyond his professional achievements, Hans consistently exhibits qualities of integrity, compassion, and humility. His willingness to mentor and support others, even in the face of his own demanding schedule, speaks volumes about his character and values.

In light of his outstanding accomplishments, leadership, innovation, community involvement, and positive influence, I wholeheartedly believe that Hans is a deserving candidate for the PGA Management award.

His tireless efforts, visionary leadership, and commitment to excellence make him a truly exceptional individual who embodies the spirit of this prestigious award.

This extended motivational statement further highlights his achievements, leadership qualities, innovation, community involvement, and personal attributes that make him deserving of the award.
